ABSTRACT

A comprehensive guide to materials about the nation of South Africa for teachers wishing to study that area of the world is given. Part 1 of the guide provides a listing of organizations and books. Over 40 organizations involved in and concerned with issues about South Africa are provided in this section. Each listing provides the name of the organization, the address, and the telephone number. Seventy books about South Africa, its land and its people, are listed alphabetically. Each listing includes the book's name, publisher, date of publication, number of pages, and price. Listings for reference books and study/action guides are also presented. (SM)
